

The Central Virginian

Since 1912 • Serving Louisa County and Lake Anna

Housing Foundation shows the love

Contributed Photos Feb 16, 2023

The Fluvanna-Louisa Housing Foundation's first major fundraiser, Have a Heart at Bandit's Ridge on Friday was a success.

Tom Payne, FLHF Board of Directors, and former Supervisor in Fluvanna County, received recognition for Outstanding Service managing Ramp installations in both counties.

Ginger Dillard, was recognized for 25 years of board service, including serving as vice-president.

Beck Cohen was a sponsor of the event and provides HVAC units to the Foundation throughout the year.

Rob Racer from Fulton Forward (Fulton Mortgage) which contributed $3,000 to the FLHF last year along with many other contributors.

Below, from left, clockwise, FLHF recognized the contributions of Jo Griffith and Judy Belluomini for their work on obtaining a $300,000 grant.

Center, the "Fab 5" of Fluvanna: Wanda Armstrong, Kim Hyland, Mozell Booker, Robyn Bolling, and Bertha Armstrong.

Bottom right and center, Tom and Wendy Payne cutting a rug, Mozell Booker and Dave Vogt get a dance together.

Bottom left, the Community Partner of the year award went to Derrick Hicks of Hicks & Sons Construction, who has provided more than 70 new roofs in the past two years.

